

Through the Eyes of Love of Dharma Mittra

Through the eyes of Love...My teacher watches me.

Through the eyes of Love...Ears can not hear what the heart hears and sees.

Through the eyes of Love...The Truth is forever told.

Through the eyes of Love...I see the Beauty as It unfolds.

Through the eyes of Love...The heart grows ever bright.

Through the eyes of Love...a gentle hand guides me to the Light.

Through the eyes of Love.....needed corrections are made.

Through the eyes of Love...The groundwork has been laid, to guide and lead, to open the heart to the beauty that lies within, to live there always and forever, never to leave home, not ever again.

Through the eyes of Love...I have found where I am meant to be,
Through the eyes of Love... I am forever grateful unto Thee
