Dharma Yoga is accepting resumes for positions at the Dharma Yoga Centers NYC. We are especially interested in applications from those who have completed our Life of a Yogi Teacher training program who are interested in supporting the further advancement of Sri Dharma Mittra's mission and life work, our various practices, programs, events, and activities. We invite you to submit your resume to us as a Word document. Make sure to let us know your computer skills, two references, and all of your current contact information. Additionally please submit a short essay of at least 200 words on why you are interested. Please send all material to rachael@dharmayogacenter.com. Thank you.
